In a subsequent Resolution dated 18th January, 1870, the circumstances were set forth under which it had been determined to hold this scheme in abeyance. For some time past the Government of India has been in communication with Her Majesty's Secretary of State regarding the re-establishment of a limited number of Government Scholarships tenable in England by Natives of

2. Six Scholarships, the cost of which will be defrayed by the Government of India, will be at once established tenable in England by persons who are Natives of India within the meaning of section 6 of the Statute 33 Vic., Chapter 3. Each scholar will be entitled to receive a sum of £100, for passage money and a similar sum will be payable within one month before his actual return to India if he should complete the full period of three years' residence, or be compelled by sickness to return before the completion of that period.

5. It is intended to reserve to the scholars the power of selecting, once for all, the course of study to be followed by them in England. Each scholar will be required to bind himself by written engagement to submit to such regulations as may from time to time be framed by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the guidance of scholars.

6. If any scholar, not being disabled by sickness, fails to complete a residence of three years in England or is guilty of gross misconduct or disregard of the orders of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, he will, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, forfeit his scholarship and further be liable to refund the sum of £100 drawn by him as passage money.

Rules and conditions relating to Scholarships instituted by the Gilchrist Educational Trust for the benefit of Natives of India.

—:O:—

[These Scholarships are open to Women upon exactly the same conditions as to Men.]

1. Three Scholarships of the value of £200 per annum will be awarded, one every year, to Candidates who are natives of India (within the meaning of section 6* of the Statute 33 Vic.,

* The provision in the Section is as follows :—“That for the purpose of this Act the words ‘natives of India’ shall include any person born and domiciled within the dominions of Her Majesty in India, of parents habitually resident in India, and not established there for temporary purposes only; and that it shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council to define and limit from time to time the qualification of natives of India thus expressed.”

Cap. 3), or of the "Native States" of India. They shall each be tenable for three years at any University or any Science or Technical College in Europe (approved by the Trustees in each case), on condition that the Scholar shall undertake to go through the course and pass the examinations necessary for obtaining a definite Science degree or diploma as may be prescribed by the Trustees. The nomination to these Scholarships will rest with the Universities of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay in rotation, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified.

2. A Scholarship will be given every third year on like conditions, the nomination of suitable Candidates for which will rest with the Universities of the Punjab and Allahabad jointly. Each of these Universities may submit to the Government of India the name of one Candidate, and the actual nomination to the Scholarship shall be made (from the names submitted) by the Government of India :

3. The Scholarships will be given (during the next few years) in the following rotation † :-

- 1891. Calcutta, Punjab and Allahabad.
- 1892. Bombay.
- 1893. Madras.
- 1894. Calcutta, Punjab and Allahabad.
- 1895. Bombay.
- 1896. Madras.

4. (a) Each University shall make its nomination from among the more distinguished of its graduates of the three preceding years, who shall not be more than 22 years of age on the 1st of July in the year in which the Scholarship is awarded. Of these, that Graduate shall be selected who has done especially well in Science or Mathematics, and is desirous of pursuing—and is most likely to benefit by—a further course of scientific study in Europe. Provided that no person holding a Government of India Scholarship, tenable in England, shall be eligible, or shall continue to hold a Gilchrist Scholarship after he has accepted a Government of India Scholarship.

i b) Probably the results of the examinations of the three preceding years will be a sufficient guide to the University in making the selection: but it will be open to each University to consider whether a special examination shall be held, although the Trustees hope that this will be avoided, if possible. If a special examination is held, all the necessary arrangements for it must be made by the University holding it; but the regulations which any University may propose to lay down in regard to such examinations must receive the previous approval of the Gilchrist Trustees. No examination should be held later than the month of June in any year, it being essential that all nominations should be made so as to afford the Scholar nominated a sufficient interval to complete his arrangements and to reach England in time for the Autumn term at the Universities and Colleges. The candidates for the special examinations, when such examinations are held, must be Graduates of proved ability, selected by the Vice-Chancellor on the report of the Syndicate or governing body, who will in their turn be guided by the opinion of the Professors and Examiners.

5. Every Candidate for a Scholarship will be required to satisfy the Vice-Chancellor of the University as to his good conduct, his knowledge of the English language, his physical capacity to undergo the course of life and study which he will have to follow in Europe: he must also satisfy him of his intention, if successful, to proceed to England forthwith, and to reside in Europe for a period of three years, unless compelled to return sooner by ill-health or some other cause which may seem sufficient to the Gilchrist Trustees.

6. Each Scholar will be provided by the Government of India with a free passage to England. The Gilchrist Trust will provide a return passage (at the end of the three years) at a cost not exceeding £50, provided that the Scholar shall have fulfilled the conditions of his Scholarship; but the Scholar will not be entitled to claim any difference between the actual cost of passage and the amount above named.

7. Each Scholar must enter into a written engagement to submit to such regulations as may from time to time be issued by the Gilchrist Trustees for the guidance of the Scholars.

8. The tenure of the Scholarships will be strictly dependent on good conduct in Europe, and on satisfactory progress being made in study. The Gilchrist Trustees reserve to themselves the right of finally deciding whether a Scholar has or has not committed a breach of the Rules and Conditions on which his Scholarship is held, as also all questions which may from time to time arise, whether expressly provided for in the Rules and Regulations or not. They further reserve to themselves the power of altering the conditions of the Scholarships, or of altogether withdrawing them, if they shall think fit. Due notice of any alterations will be given, and changes will not be made in such a manner as to affect the interests of Students already appointed to Scholarships.

On the nomination of a Scholar being completed, the University or the Government of India (as the case may be) nominating him should communicate his name and address to the Secretary of the Gilchrist Trust, 4 The Sanctuary, Westminster, London. If the nomination is made after examination, the number and names &c. of the Candidates from whom the selection was made, should also be communicated.

each Gilchrist Scholar as soon as possible after he has reported his arrival at the Office of the Trustees, and will confer with him upon the course he may propose to pursue, and the University or College to be selected.

Regulations for Gilchrist Indian Scholars in England.

(1) Every Scholar shall, on reaching England, at once present himself at the Office of the Gilchrist Trust and report his arrival. He shall be provided with an official certificate of identity signed by the Registrar of the University by which he is nominated, or by a Secretary or Under-Secretary to Government.

(2) Every Scholar shall, on arriving in England, submit for the approval of the Gilchrist Trustees a statement showing the general course of study he proposes to follow; and specifying the University or College to which he proposes to proceed. After consideration of such Statement, the Trustees will decide at what University, or Science or Technical College, in Europe the Scholarship shall be tenable, and will prescribe the course to be gone through and the degree or diploma to be obtained. Every Scholar shall at once take steps to enter himself at the University or College which the Trustees shall have approved. The course finally prescribed by the Trustees shall not be changed without their sanction.

(3) Every Scholar shall, at the end of each University or College term, send to the Secretary of the Gilchrist Trust a certificate from the proper University or College authority, showing that his residence, conduct and progress in study have been satisfactory during the term.

(4) Every Scholar shall at all times obey such instructions as he may receive from the Gilchrist Trustees or their Secretary.

(5) The Scholarship allowance, at the rate of £200 a year for three years, will be paid quarterly, in advance, by the Gilchrist Trust, commencing from the date when the Scholar reports his arrival in England.

(6) Every Scholar will forfeit his Scholarship who, not being disabled by illness or prevented by any other cause which the Gilchrist Trustees may consider sufficient, fails to complete a residence of three years in Europe, or who is at any time guilty of misconduct or disregard of the orders of the Gilchrist Trustees. If a Scholarship be forfeited, the Scholar will lose his claim to a free return passage to India.

LONDON MISSION COLLEGE, BENARES.

AFFILIATED IN ARTS, 1888.

This College is the result of the gradual growth of a small vernacular school formed in the Sikraul suburb of Benares by the Rev. M. T. Adam in 1821, the year after the Benares Mission of the London Missionary Society was established by him. In 1823 this School was succeeded by another founded by him in the Káshipur portion of Benares. Such schools gradually multiplied until in 1840 they were eight in number and contained 405 pupils. Early in 1844 a superior educational establishment was opened under the name of the Central School in the heart of the city; and in November 1845, its standard was raised by the addition of an English Department. During the next twenty-five years it gradually absorbed into itself the smaller schools ; and its educational character steadily advanced, until it reached the Entrance Standard of the University of Calcutta. In 1870 it was removed to a suburb of the city, and united with another school which had rapidly sprung up there. In the following year this amalgamated institution was affiliated under the name of the London Mission High School up to the First Arts Standard of the University of Calcutta. During the succeeding twelve years its progress continued ; and early in 1883 it was affiliated under the name of the London Mission College up to the B. A. Standard of the University of Calcutta.

The number of students on the rolls is about four hundred. Instruction is given in Christianity and in general secular subjects in the vernaculars ; and in English from the alphabet up to the B. A. Standard.

The late Maharaja of Vizianagram endowed the institution with a sum of money for the annual purchase of a gold medal of the value of eight pounds, to be called Vizianagram Medal to which is attached a small monthly scholarship. In addition, the College awards several scholarships to deserving students, tenable for twelve months.

MAHARAJA'S COLLEGE, JEYPUR.

AFFILIATED IN ARTS, 1888.

This College was founded in 1844 by the Jeypur Darbar to secure for the people of Jeypur the benefits of a liberal education. It was originally opened as a School; but the success of the institution having shown that its sphere of usefulness might be extended, it was raised to the status of a College and affiliated to the Calcutta University in 1873, the instructive staff being at the same time augmented and improved to meet its wants. The institution, now affiliated also to the new University of Allahabad, comprises three departments,—an English, an Anglo-Vernacular, and an Oriental Department. The English Department consists of the College proper, giving instruction up to the standard of the B.A. Examination of the University of Allahabad, and a Preparatory School containing 12 graduated classes, many of which are divided into sections. In the Anglo-Vernacular Department all subjects are taught in Hindi, and English is taken as a second language. In the Oriental Department, Arabic, Persian, or Sanskrit are exclusively taught, and the students are trained up for the Oriental Examinations of the Panjab University. The average number of students on the roll of the College is 1500. Besides intellectual training and a proper enforcement of discipline, particular care is taken to ensure the physical and moral well-being of the students. The institution also affords to its students the advantage of such an education as may fit them for State employment or for a professional career.

A library and debating club are attached to the College.

Connected with the College, and under the control of the Principal, is a Rajput School, attended only by the young chiefs of the State, who undergo a special course of instruction.

The College is also the centre of a number of schools in the State, which are in a manner affiliated to it, and are under the control of the Principal. These Schools are divided into District Schools, Village Schools, and Girls' Schools, and amount in number to 160, with a daily attendance of about 6000 pupils. A system of examination is in force for the whole of Jeypur, the chief State schools sending candidates to the main institution. These examinations are intended to lead up to the Middle Class Examination, and are managed by the Principal of the Maharaja's College.

The educational institutions described above are entirely supported by the State: no tuition or entrance fee is exacted from the students. All graduates and under-graduates of the College receive scholarships from the State, varying from Rs. 8 to Rs. 25 per month, and tenable for two years. A medal was annually awarded by His Excellency Lord Northbrook to the first boy of the College for general proficiency, in commemoration of his visit to Jeypur in 1876. Prizes and scholarships to the value of more than Rs. 3,000 are also awarded to the deserving pupils of the Preparatory School and the other educational institutions, according to the results of the periodical examinations and examinations in special subjects. Books, too, are given gratis to poor boys, many of whom also receive stipends for their maintenance.

FIRST PAPER.

F. L. THOMSON Esq. M. A.
W. C. HORST Esq. B. A. }
J. W. BACON Esq. M. A. } Examiners.

1. Fully explain the meaning of the following words and show by short sentences how you would use them :—chrysalis, periphrasis, libertine, tutelar, parasite, genuflexions, postilion, friars, strenuous, aphorism.
2. Bring out the meaning of each of the following phrases using the simplest language you can :—
 - (1) To fight by proxy ; (2) every now and then ; (3) to imbibe another's spirit ; (4) to be made for each other ; (5) to proceed to extremities.
3. The student is expected to bring out clearly and concisely the meaning of each of the following proverbs and sayings. He should use simple language and explain any metaphors.

- i. It is better to wear out than to rust out.
- ii. None of us liveth to himself or dieth to himself.
- iii. Self-preservation is the first law of nature.
- iv. Pride goeth before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall.
- v. Keep me innocent, make others great.
- vi. Be not quick of tongue and slow of deed.

4. (a) Write in the indirect form the parts of the following that are in the direct form of narration.

(b) Explain the phrases in bold type.

(c) Answer briefly the questions in italics.

A Greek quotation, and in a coach too, roused the slumbering professor from a kind of dog-sleep in a snug corner of the vehicle. Shaking his head and rubbing his eyes, 'I think, young gentleman,' said he, 'you favoured us just now with a quotation from Sophocles; I do not happen to recollect it there.' 'Oh, sir!', replied our tyro, 'the quotation is word for word as I have repeated it, and in Sophocles too: but I suspect, sir, that it is some time since you were at college.'

Why did the professor shake his head? What is meant by a 'dog sleep'? What is the force of the words, 'there' and 'our'? Give one-word equivalent in meaning to 'word for word.' What did the young man mean when he said, "I suspect, sir, that it is some time since you were at College"?

5. In the three following passages, bring out the meaning in simple and concise sentences; answer the questions in italics very briefly; explain, in foot-notes, the meaning of words or phrases in bold type.

(a) Dr. Duncan knew that, even in the poorest family, there were odds and ends of income apt to be frittered away in unnecessary expenditure. He saw some thrifty cottagers using the expedient of a cow, or a bit of garden-ground, as a savings bank—finding their return of interest in the shape of butter and milk, or garden produce, and it occurred to him that there were other villagers—single men and young women—for whom some analogous mode of storing away their summer's savings might be provided, and a fair rate of interest returned upon their little investments.

What is the difference in meaning between "income" and "salary"? If a man spends his money unnecessarily, what is he said to be? What are men who take more than a fair rate of interest on money, called? Why is there reference made to summer's savings, and not to the savings of winter?

(b) I look back on that part of my life with little satisfaction: it was a period of gloom and savage unsociability; by degrees I sunk into a kind of corporeal torpor: or, if aroused into activity by the spirit of youth, wasted the exertion in splenetic and vexatious tricks, which alienated the few acquaintances whom compassion had yet left me. So I crept on in silent discontent, unfriended, and unpitied, indignant at the present, careless of the future; an object at once of apprehension and dislike.

Parse the word 'object.' What is the difference in meaning between 'apprehension' and 'dislike'? Who wrote this passage and to whom does it refer?

(c) Dark and voluminous the vapours rise,
And hang their horrors in the neighbouring skies,
While through the Stygian veil that blots the day
In dazzling streaks the vivid lightnings play.
But oh! what muse, and in what powers of song,
Can trace the torrent as it burns along?
Havoc and devastation in the van,
It marches o'er the prostrate works of man.

Parse the word 'devastation.' What do the words 'Stygian' and 'muse' mean? What is referred to in this passage, and who is its author?

6. Passages from books not prescribed.

Re-write the following in your own words so as to bring out the sense fully. Make your sentences short and simple.

(a) Ancient Greece was as much distinguished for her artistic productions as for her natural beauty. Her sculpture and her architecture, as well as her poetry, are the admiration and envy of the modern world. Artists do not hope to surpass ; it is their highest ambition to copy, and, if possible, to approach, the works of her great masters. And yet neither her natural beauty nor her artistic skill could preserve her from national degradation and decay. The beauty remains, but the greatness has passed away,

“Eternal summer gilds her yet,

“But all except her sun is set.”

(b) Rustum answer'd not, but hurl'd
 His spear ; down from the shoulder, down it came,
 As on some partridge in the corn a hawk,
 That long has tower'd in the airy clouds,
 Drops like a plummet ; Sohrab saw it come,
 And sprang aside, quick as a flash ; the spear
 Hiss'd, and went quivering down into the sand,
 Which it sent flying wide ;—then Sohrab threw
 In turn, and full struck Rustum's shield ; sharp rang,
 The iron plates rang sharp, but turn'd the spear.

Quand l'enfant pleure, il est mal à son aise, il a quelque besoin qu'il ne saurait satisfaire ; on examine, on cherche ce besoin, on le trouve, on y pourvoit. Quand on ne le trouve pas ou quand on n'y peut pourvoir, les pleurs continuent, on en est importuné : on flatte l'enfant pour le faire taire, on le berce on lui chante pour l'endormir : s'il s'opiniâtre, on s'impatiente, on le menace ; des nourrices brutales le frappent quelquefois. Voilà d'étranges leçons pour son entrée à la vie. Je n'oublierai jamais d'avoir vu un de ces incommodes pleureurs ainsi frappé par sa nourrice. Il se tut sur-le-champ : je le crus intimidé. Je me disais, ce sera une âme servile dont on n'obtiendra rien que par la rigueur. Je me trompais ; le malheureux suffoquait de colère, il avait perdu la respiration ; je le vis devenir violet. Un moment après vinrent les cris aigus ; tous les signes du ressentiment, de la fureur, du désespoir de cet âge étaient dans ses accents. Je craignis qu'il n'expirât dans cette agitation. Quand j'aurais douté que le sentiment du juste et de l'injuste fût inné dans le cœur de l'homme, cet exemple seul m'aurait convaincu. Je suis sûr qu'un tison ardent tombé par hasard sur la main de cet enfant lui eût été sensible que ce coup assez léger, mais donné dans l'intention manifeste de l'offenser.

(a). Alexander the Great, King of Macedonia, having conquered Darius, King of Persia, took an infinite number of prisoners; and, among others, the wife and mother of Darius. Now, according to the laws of war, he might with justice have made slaves of them : but he had too much greatness of soul to make a bad use of his victory ; he therefore treated them as queens, and showed them the same attentions and respect, as if he had been their subject ; which Darius hearing of said, that Alexander deserved to be victorious, and was alone worthy to reign in his stead. Observe by this, how virtue and greatness of soul, compel even enemies to bestow praises.

July the 24th, 1793.

(b.) My dear boy,

I was pleased with your asking me, the last time I saw you, why I had left off writing; for I looked upon it as a sign that you liked and minded my letters: if that be the case, you shall hear from me often enough; and my letters may be of use, if you will give attention to them; otherwise it is only giving myself trouble to no purpose; for it signifies nothing to read a thing once, if one does not mind and remember it. It is a sure sign of a little mind, to be doing one thing, and at the same time to be either thinking of another, or not thinking at all. One should always think of what one is about: When one is learning, one should not think of play; and when one is at play, one should not think of one's learning. Adieu.

Il me vint hier un gentilhomme de ce pays-là, qui était présent à cette arrivée, et qui vous a vue jouer à petite peine avec Varoles, Bandol, et un autre. (b) Je reçois votre lettre de 28; elle me ravit ; ne craignez point, ma bonne, que ma joie se refroidisse ; elle a un fond si chaud qu'elle ne peut être tiède. Je ne suis occupée que de la joie sensible de vous voir et de vous embrasser avec des sentiments et des manières d'aimer qui sont d'une étoffe au-dessus du commun, et même de ce qu'on estime le plus.

(a) S'il est pour me trahir des esprits assez bas,
Ma vertu pour le moins ne me trahira pas ;
Vous la verrez, brillant au bord des précipices,
Se couronner le gloire en bravant les supplices,
Rendre Auguste jaloux du sangue qu'il repandra,
Et le faire trembler alors qu'il me pendra.

(b) Tu m'oses aimer, et tu n'oses mourir !
Tu prétends un peu trop ; mais quoi-que tu prétends,
Rends-toi digne du moins de ce que tu demandes ;
Cesse de fuir en lâche un glorieux trepas,
Ou de m'offrir un coeur que tu fais voir si bas ;
Fais que je porte envie à ta vertue parfaite,
Ne te pouvant aimer, fais que je te regrette ;
Montre d'un vrai Romain la dernière vigueur,
Et mérite mes pleurs au defaut de mon coeur.

SECOND PAPER.

A. E. GOUGH, Esq., M. A. Examiner

1. Translate into English:—

(a) Dès mon enfance j'ai été élevé dans la marine. Ayant suivi le capitaine Stradling dans son expédition, j'eus un démêlé avec lui, ce qui l'engagea à me débarquer sur cette île. Je résolus d'abord d'y rester, plutôt que de m'exposer à de nouveaux chagrins, d'autant plus que le vaisseau était en mauvais état. Cependant revenu à moi-même je souhaitai d'y retourner, mais le capitaine n'y voulut pas consentir.

(b) Je fis deux cabanes à quelque distance l'une de l'autre avec du bois de piment ; je les couvris d'une espèce de jonc, et les doublai de peaux de chèvres que je tuais à mesure que j'en avais besoin, tant que ma poudre dura. Lorsqu'elle approchait de sa fin, je trouvai le secret de tirer du feu avec deux morceaux de bois que je frottais l'un contre l'autre.

(c) Quelques Espagnols qui avaient déjà mis pied à terre, ne m'eurent pas plutôt aperçu qu'ils tirèrent sur moi et me poursuivirent jusque dans les bois, où je grimpai sur un arbre. Enfin j'aperçus vos navires que je pris aussitôt pour Anglais. J'allumai un feu sur un rocher près du rivage pour vous donner le signal de ma détresse. Vous me comprirez et grâces à votre humanité, je puis espérer de revoir ma patrie.

2. Translate into idiomatic French.

My brother and I are going to the theatre.

Are you going into the country ? No, Sir, I am not.

I have not seen the place you speak of.

I am not going out. The weather is bad, and it is better to stay at home.

The rain is stopping. It is time to go out.

The friend whose word I trusted has deceived me.

I said that I would do what I had promised.

The best thing you can do is to set out at once for America.

This is an affair in which you must not trust anybody whatever.

I often think about you. May you be happy in your new life,

How kind you are !

You must wait till I come back. I told you to come at six o'clock precisely.

I am afraid your father is worse than you think. We must send for the doctor.

Have you told him that smoking is forbidden here?

He escaped by jumping through the window.

According to the philosophers virtue consists in living according to nature.

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION, 1894.

ENGLISH.

FIRST PAPER.

W. YOUNG, ESQ., Examiner.

4. Write out the following passages in prose ; be brief ; use the simplest language you can ; bring out the meaning fully ; and explain each metaphor and allusion :—

(a) They moved :—I said Fitz James was brave,
As ever knight that belted glaive ;
Yet dare not say, that now his blood
Kept on its wont and tempest'd flood,
As, following Roderick's stride, he drew
That seeming lonesome pathway through,
Which yet by fearful proof, was rife

With lances, that to take his life,
Waited but signal from a guide,
So late dishonour'd and defied.

(b) And, like a horse unbroken
When first he feels the rein,
The furious river struggled hard,
And tossed his tawny mane,
And burst the curb, and bounded,
Rejoicing to be free,
And whirling down, in fierce career,
Battlement, and plank, and pier,
Rushed headlong to the sea.

(c) But evermore
His fancy fled before the lazy wind
Returning, till beneath a clouded moon
He like a lover down thro' all his blood
Drew in the dewy meadowy morning-breath
Of England, blown across her ghostly wall.

(d) So have I seen a bold imperious man
With forward tongue, before the storm began,
Urging the tardy mariner to sail,
But when the tempest rose no more was heard
The coward's voice, but wrapt beneath his cloak
Silent he lay, and suffered every foot
To trample on him. Thus it is with thee,
And thy foul tongue : forth from a litte cloud
Soon as the storm shall burst, it will o'erwhelm thee,
And stop thy clamours.

2. Explain the following by writing a brief and clear note on each :—
Massilia's triremes ; the she-wolf's litter ; carpet-knight ; silvan war ; tainted gale ; hand-to-mouth ; shipshape ; steel-devouring stone ; the fire that burns for aye ; shroud of sentient clay ; the spearmen's twilight wood ; a later but a loftier Annie Lee ; the new mother came about her heart ; the tributary song ; the vengeful Furies ; the vale of years.

3. By whom, and under what circumstances were the following words uttered ? (The answers should not exceed four lines each.)

- (a) "On heaven and on thy lady call,
And enter the enchanted hall."
- (b) "Fling me the picture of the fight.
When met my clan the Saxon might."
- (c) "The worst of men, assisted by the gods
May conquer ; I shall do the work without them."
- (d) "Woman, thy sex's noblest ornament
Is silence."
- (e) "A Roman's life, a Roman's arms,
Take thou in charge this day."

4. (a) What are the four crises in the tale of Enoch Arden ?

(b) It has been said that "Annie's failure at shopkeeping is explained rather to her credit than otherwise." Explain clearly the meaning of this remark.

(c) Compare the characters of Enoch Arden and Philip Ray.

5. Give in your own words a plain prose account of (a) the interview between Minerva and Ajax in the presence of Ulysses ; and (b) the death of Blanche of Devon. (The answers should not extend beyond two pages for each.)

6. What is meant by "landscape painting in poetry"? Compare Tennyson and Scott as landscape painters. Quote if you can, a few lines from Enoch Arden, and the Lady of the Lake, in illustration of your answer.

7. What are the generally received opinions regarding early Roman History? Explain as clearly as you can the relation of Macaulay's Lays to these opinions.

8. Note any differences or resemblances in the structure of the verse, in the extracts a, b, c, and d, in question 1. Scan the following lines :—(a) As following &c ; (b) Battlement and plank &c ; (c) Drew in the dewy &c ; (d) Urging the tardy &c.

SECOND PAPER.

J. G. JENNINGS, ESQ., B. A., Examiner.

1. (a) Show how far Ralegh is entitled to be called "the father of English colonisation" by briefly mentioning his predecessors in English discovery and showing the extent and the immediate results of his work in North America.

(b) "In an age remarkable for its varied forms of intellectual vigour, he represents with wonderful many-sidedness the different interests which then absorbed men's minds." Justify this statement by pointing out the different lines in which Ralegh distinguished himself; and very concisely summarise the parts which he played in each.

2. (a) "Balzac's studies had led him over a wide range of thought and speculation, and his shadowing forth of a physiological truth in this strange story may have been intentional. At any rate, the matter of life is a veritable pean de chagrin." Explain this passage by reproducing the story, showing what physiological truth it shadows forth, and pointing out wherein the physiological phenomena resemble and wherein they differ from each detail of the story.

(b) "But when the Materialists stray beyond the borders of their path and begin to talk about there being nothing else in the universe, but Matter and Force and Necessary Laws, and all the rest of their 'grenadiers,' I decline to follow them. I go back to the point from which we started, and to the other path of Descartes." Put the italicised phrases into your own words, recapitulate very briefly the reasons which Huxley gives for declining to follow the Materialists, and point out the two "paths" of Descartes.

(c) "Thus the question of compulsory education is settled so far as nature is concerned. Her bill on that question was framed and passed long ago. But, like all compulsory legislation, that of nature is harsh and wasteful in its operation." Put this passage into your own words concisely, omitting no idea contained in the original, and explaining every metaphor and allusion; and state what Huxley means by "natural education," "artificial education," and "liberal education."

3. (a) Put into your own words and make clear as explained above :—“ And so we move about in a mist, and talk of phantoms as if they were living men, and think that we understand those who never interchange any discourse with us, but the talk of the market-place ; or if they do, it is only as players who are playing a part set down in certain words, to be eked out with the stage gestures for each affection, who would deem themselves little else than mad if they were to say out to us anything of their own.”

(b) Put into your own words and explain :—“ They are apt contrivances for obtaining an average of opinions, for insuring freedom from corruption of that freedom. On ordinary occasions they are more courageous than most individuals. They can bear odium better.”

(c) Classify the subjects of Helps’ Essays, pointing out any distinction which you may have observed, between the subjects of the two parts into which the “ Essays” are divided.

4. (a) “ More than once had the Pasha of Egypt commanded that Ibrahim should have the Albanians delivered up to him ; but this white woman of the mountain (grown classical, not by books, but by very pride), answered only with a disdainful invitation to ‘ come and take them.’ ” Explain the allusions in this passage and put the italicised phrases into your own words.

(b) Explain the italicised phrases in the following sentences :—

(i) “ A simple cornet in the Blues is no more likely to entertain belief about ghosts than the Lord High Chancellor.”

(ii) “ I don’t recollect that there was one of them whom I should have looked upon as a desirable life-holder of any property to which I might be entitled in expectancy.”

(iii) “ There were no lords of the bed-chamber, and no gold sticks and stones in waiting.”

(iv) “ I was only the death’s-head and white sheet with which he scared the enemy.”

(v) “ The puzzled old woman at the lodge can give small account of ‘ The Family.’ ”

मैंने यहां पर एक गहरी सांस भरी और कहा हाथ मनुष्य व्यर्थ ही सृष्टि भवा है केवल हुँख और मृत्यु के मुख में गिरनेके लिये। जीतेजी महा कष्ट भोगता है और अन्त को मौत उसे निगल जाती है। तब उस देवने मुझपर कृपालु होकर आदेश किया कि इस हुँखदायी दृश्यपर न निहारो और कहा मनुष्य के जीवन की प्रथम भूमिका की ओर दृष्टि न करो जिस समय कि वह अनन्तकाल की ओर यात्रा कर रहा है। पर उस घन कुहरे की ओर देखो जिधर जल प्रवाह उन मनुष्यों को बहाये लिये जाता है जो उसमें गिरते जाते हैं। मैंने उनकी आज्ञा के अनुसार उधर देखा। न जाने उस इयालु देवने मेरी दृष्टि में अलौकिक शक्ति देखियी अथवा उस घने कुहरे को हठा दिया जो पहिजे इतना घना था कि उसके बीच दृष्टि न जाती थी अब क्या देखता हूँ कि पर्वत की दर्री के दूरके सिरे का मुँह खुल गया है और एक महा सागर में जा भिला है और फैल गया है। उस सागर में एक बज का महापर्वत बीचोबीच पड़ा है और समुद्र को दो तुल्य भागों में विभक्त किया है। एक भाग पर तो अभीतक कुहरा छाये था और उस में कुछ भी देख न पड़ा। पर दूसरे भाग में तो यह देखने में आया कि

एक महा समुद्र में असंख्य द्वीप पड़े हैं। वे द्वीप फल और फूलों से भरे हैं। और छोटे २ समुद्र के चमकीले दुकड़ों से घिरे हैं। मैंने देखा कि वहाँ के लोग उज्ज्वल वस्त्र पहिरे हैं और सिर में फूलों का हार धारण किये हैं। कोई तो वृक्ष के तले धूम रहे हैं कोई झरना के तट पर लेटे हैं। एक मधुर गुजार सुना जिस में पक्षियों का कलरव, जलधारा का पतन, मनुष्यों की बोली और वाद्ययन्त्रों का स्वर एक होकर मिले थे। इसके देखने और सुनने से मुझे बड़ा आनन्द हुआ और यह अभिनाश हुआ कि यदि मुझे भाष्य का पक्ष होता तो ऐसे सुख के स्थानों पर उड़ जाता। पर उस देवने कहा कि वहाँ जाने का और कोई रास्ता नहीं है। कैवल्य मृत्युद्वार से जाना पड़ता है जिसको मैंने पुलपर प्रतिज्ञण खुलते देखा था। देवने कहा कि ये द्वीप जो ऐसे ताजे वहरे हैं और जहाँतक दृष्टि जाती है वेष्य पड़ते हैं समुद्र के तट के बालू से भी अधिक हैं। और जो देख पड़ते हैं उनके पांछे और भी असंख्य पड़े हैं जो दृष्टि और कल्पना के बाहर है। ये द्वीप मृत्यु के पांछे सत् पुरुषों के वासस्थान हैं। ये लोग अपने सत् कर्मोंका अधिकता और उत्कर्षता के अनुसार वहाँ वसाये गये हैं। यहाँ भोग के पदार्थ नाना भाँत के रखके हैं जो वहाँ के वासियों की रुचि और उत्कृष्टता के आरोग्य समझे गये हैं। प्रत्येक द्वीप वहाँ के वासियों के लिये एक एक स्वर्ग द्यएँ ही तो है ॥

हे महाराज क्या ऐसे स्थान प्राप्त करने के लिये मनुष्यको यद्द करना उचित नहीं है। क्या जीवन को दुख की खान ही समझना चाहिये जब उसमें ऐसे सुख की प्राप्ति का अवसर मिलता है। क्या मृत्यु को डरना चाहिये जो ऐसे सुख के स्थान में पहुंचावेगा। यह मत समझो कि मनुष्य व्यर्थ स्तु भया है जिसके लिये ये अनन्त सुख रखते हैं ॥

B.

हे महाश्राव मुझको आप लोगों से यह कहना आवश्यक नहीं है कि आरोग्य का अमूल्य सुख सब सुखोंका मूल है। भनी भाँत शरीर की अवस्थाओं को जात होंगो जिनपर आरोग्य बना रहता है। बड़ा दृढ़ता से शरीर के उन धर्मों का प्रतिपालन करो जिससे आरोग्य बना रह ।

शिक्षा देकर उपदेश देकर स्वयं उदाहरण स्वरूप राह दिखाकर सर्व-साधारण प्रजाकी आरोग्य वृद्धि करते रहो । धीरे धीरे आप लोग इस विषयमें बहुत कुछ काम कर सकते हो । इस का फल यह होगा कि प्रजाको आरोग्य ता अधिक और रोग थोड़ा, अधिक सुख और स्वल्प क्लेश होगा । आरोग्य के विषय में बहुत उपदेश वा व्याख्यान करना कठाचित् आवश्यक समझा न जावे पर प्रायः देखने में आता है कि स्वल्प लाभ के लिये अमूल्य आरोग्य को लोग नष्ट कर बैठते हैं ॥

आरोग्य प्राप्त करने का ज्ञान जवानों के पूर्वही सीखना चाहिये न कि जब शरीर से आरोग्य बिदा हो गया हो या बिदा होनपर हो अनाई चिकित्सकों पर अपनी शरीरकी भलाई को मत छोड़ बैठो । जितना अधिक दिन सुखसे जीओगे उतना ही तुम्हारे विद्येपार्जन का उद्देश्य सफल होयगा ॥

1. Show that the angle subtended at the centre of a circle by an arc equal to its radius is constant. What is this angle called? Show how, this angle being adopted as the unit of angular measurement, any other angle may be measured in terms of this unit.

2. Show that:— (1) $\frac{\sin A + \sec A}{\cos A + \operatorname{cosec} A} = \tan A$

(2) $\sin^2 A \tan^2 A + \cos^2 A \cot^2 A = \tan^2 A + \cot^2 A - 1$.

(2) $\cos 2A = \cos^4 A - \sin^4 A$.

(3) $\frac{\cos 9^\circ + \sin 9^\circ}{\cos 9^\circ - \sin 9^\circ} = \tan 54^\circ$

9. Translate into Arabic and add diacritical marks to your translation :—

The early Muslims, after subduing Persia, effected conquests, and colonised the conquered country, in Transoxiana, Mekran, and the valley of the Indus. But they did not penetrate farther eastward, being perhaps deterred by rumours that would reach them in Sindh of the large armies and warlike qualities of the Rajpoot chiefs and peoples. At last in the tenth century A. D., a large portion of Eastern Persia became independent of the Arab Khalif, under a native dynasty known as Samanis; and it was under the fifth ruler of this dynasty that the Turkish Mameluke, Alptigin, became independent in the elevated country of which Ghazni was the centre.

The conflict of Rome and Persia was prolonged from the death of Crassus to the reign of Heraclius. FIRST PAPER.

C. A. ANDREWS ESQ., M. A. Examiner.

(b) Explain the meaning of the following passages :—

(i) Have more than thou shovest,
 Speak less than thou knowest,
 Lend less than thou owest,
 Ride more than thou goest,
 Learn more than thou trowest,
 Set less than thou throwest ;
 And thou shalt have more
 Than two tens to a score.

(ii) Edgar (to his blind father).

Bear free and patient thoughts.—But who comes here?

Enter Lear fantastically dressed with wild flowers.

The safer sense will ne'er accommodate
 His master thus.

(iii) The hedge-sparrow fed the cuckoo so long,
 That it's had it head bit off by it young.

Explain the application of the Fool's verse to Goneril's "discreet proceeding."

Write a short note on the use of the word it in the second line.

2. (a) In designating Shakespeare's periods of authorship, why does Dowden call the Fourth period, On the Heights? Illustrate his meaning by references to the moral teaching of the Tempest. What is Caliban supposed to represent?

- (i) Foot it feathly here and there,
- (ii) Will you troll the catch
You taught me but while-ere,

Rather than want a spirit.
- (iv) 'Steal by line and level' is an excellent pass of pate.

3. (a) With what apparent purpose is the burlesque interlude of Pyramus and Thisbe introduced into A Midsummer Night's Dream? Show that the latter is essentially a Dream-Play. Is the influence which Cupid exercises over the fairies and the lovers susceptible of any allegorical interpretation?

(b) Explain the following passages, and apply them to Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream :—

- (i) The poet's eye, in a fine frenzy rolling,
Doth glance from heaven to earth, from earth to heaven ;
And as imagination bodies forth
The forms of things unknown, the poet's pen
Turns them to shapes and gives to airy nothing
A local habitation and a name.
- (ii) Hippolyta. This is the silliest stuff that ever I heard.
Theseus. The best in this kind are but shadows ; and the worst are no worse if imagination amend them.
Hip. It must be your imagination then, and not theirs.

4. (a) Who were The Rivals in Sheridan's play? Show by a reference to scenes and situations in the play, that his art was theatrical rather than dramatic.

(b) Explain the sentences italicized in the following extract :—
Lucy. She reads so—my stars ! how she will read off hand.
Sir Lucius. Faith, she must be very deep read to write this way—though she is rather an arbitrary writer too—for here are a great many words pressed into the service of this note, that would get their habeas corpus from any court in Christendom.

Lucy. Oh ! Sir Lucius, if you were to hear how she talks of you !

Sir Lucius. Oh ! tell her I'll make her the best husband in the world, and Lady O'Trigger into the bargain ! But we must get the old gentlewoman's consent—and do everything fairly.

Lucy. Nay, Sir Lucius. I thought you wa'nt rich enough to be so nice.

Sir Lucius. Upon my word, young woman, you have hit it :—

I am so poor that I can't afford to do a dirty action.

(i) More lovely than Pandora, whom the gods
Endowed with all their gifts, and, oh ! too like
In sad event, when to the unwiser son
Of Japhet brought by Hermes, she ensnared
Mankind with her fair looks, to be avenged
On him who had stolen Jove's authentic fire.

(ii) As bees
In spring time, when the sun with Taurus rides,
Pour forth their populous youth about the hive
In clusters : they among fresh dews and flowers
Fly to and fro, or on the smoothed plank,
The suburb of their straw-built citadel,
New rubbed with balm, expatiate and confer
Their state affairs.

(iii) As when a vulture on Imaus bred,
Whose snowy ridge the roving Tartar bounds,

Dislodging from a region scarce of prey,
 To gorge the flesh of lambs or yearling kids,
 On hills where flocks are fed, flies toward the springs
 Of Ganges or Hydaspes, Indian streams ;
 But in his way lights on the barren plains
 Of Sericana, where Chineses drive
 With sails and wind their cany waggons light.

(iv) As when from mountain-tops the dusky clouds
 Ascending, while the north-wind sleeps, o'erspread
 Heaven's cheerful face, the louring element
 Scowls o'er the darkened landskip snow or shower
 If chance the radiant sun with farewell sweet
 Extend his evening beam, the fields revive,
 The birds their notes renew, and bleating herds
 Attest their joy, that hill and valley rings.

6. (a) Criticise the title of Pope's Essay on Man; and state briefly the principal subjects he deals with in each of its four epistles. How far has he succeeded in vindicating the ways of God to man?

(b) Express the following passages in prose, bringing out the meaning of each fully, and explaining any allusions :—

(i) He sees why nature plants in man alone
 Hope of known bliss, and faith in bliss unknown :
 (Nature, whose dictates to no other kind
 Are given in vain, but what they seek they find).
 Wise is her present ; she connects in this
 His greatest virtue with his greatest bliss ;
 At once his own bright prospect to be blest,
 And strongest motive to assist the rest.

(ii) Th'eternal art educating good from ill,
 Grafts on this [master] passion our best principle :
 'Tis thus the mercury of man is fixed,
 Strong grows the virtue with his nature mixed ;
 The dross cements what else were too refined,
 And in one interest body acts with mind.

(iii) Oh ! how our hearts were beating, when, at the dawn of day,
We saw the army of the League drawn out in long array ;
With all its priest-led citizens, and all its rebel peers,
And Appenzel's stout infantry, and Egmont's Flemish spears.
There rode the brood of false Lorraine, the curses of our land ;
And dark Mayenne was in the midst, a truncheon in his hand ;
And, as we looked on them, we thought of Seine's empurpled flood,
And good Coligny's hoary hair all dabbled with his blood.

ADDITIONAL MATHEMATICS.

FIRST PAPER.

W. N. BOUTFLOWER, ESQ., B. A., Examiner.

1. Investigate the expansion of e^x in ascending powers of x .

Find the coefficient of x^{2n} in the expansion of $(e^x - e^{-x})^2$.

2. Reduce the expression $\frac{1-9x+32x^2}{(1-5x)^2(1+7x)}$ to its partial fractions, and hence find the coefficient of x^n when it is expanded in ascending powers of x .

3. State and prove the rule for the formation of the successive convergents of a continued fraction.

Find the value of $1 + \frac{1}{3+5} + \frac{1}{3+5+3} + \frac{1}{3+5+3+5} + \text{ &c.}$

4. Prove that the Arithmetic mean of any number of positive quantities is greater than the geometric mean.

5. Assuming DeMoivre's theorem, when the index is a positive integer, shew that it is also true when the index is a negative integer.

Solve by means of DeMoivre's theorem the equation $x^4 + 4 = 0$.

6. Sum to n terms the series—

$$\sin^3 \alpha + \sin^3 (\alpha + \beta) + \sin^3 (\alpha + 2\beta) + \text{ &c. ;}$$

and to infinity the series $x \sin \theta - \frac{x^3}{2} \sin 3\theta + \frac{x^5}{3} \sin 5\theta - \text{ &c. .}$

7. If the straight lines $ax + by + p = 0$ and $x \cos \alpha + y \sin \alpha = p$ enclose an angle of 45° , and the straight line $x \sin \alpha - y \cos \alpha = 0$ passes through the point of their intersection, prove that $a^2 + b^2 = 2$.

8. Find the equation to a pair of tangents drawn to the circle $x^2 + y^2 = r^2$ from an external point (h, k) .

9. Obtain the equation to the normal to the ellipse $\frac{x^2}{a^2} + \frac{y^2}{b^2} = 1$ at the point (x', y') .

11. Find the eccentricity of the conic section whose equation is

$$x^2 - 8xy - 8y^2 + 10x + 8y = 0.$$

SECOND PAPER.

H. Cox, Esq. Examiner.

Full marks will be given for ten questions correctly answered, provided not less than two are answered in each subject.

1. Assuming that $f(x+h)$ can be expanded in a series of ascending powers of h , prove Taylor's theorem.

2. Expand $\sin^{-1}x$, and $\tan^{-1}x$, in a series of ascending powers of x .

3. State Leibnitz's theorem and apply it to find the n^{th} differential coefficient of—

$$x^n \log x.$$

4. Illustrate geometrically the theorem that $f'(x)$ must vanish in order that $f(x)$ may be a maximum or minimum. What is the geometrical meaning of $f''(x)$ vanishing?

A and B are two fixed points on opposite sides of the line LM. A point P is taken in LM such that—

AP + μ BP is a minimum, where μ is any constant; shew that—

$$\frac{\cos APL}{\cos BPM} = \mu$$

5. Prove that at a point of inflexion on the curve—

$$\phi(x, y) = 0$$

$$\frac{d^2\phi}{dx^2} \left(\frac{d\phi}{dy} \right)^2 - 2 \frac{d^2\phi}{dx dy} \frac{d\phi}{dx} \frac{d\phi}{ay} + \frac{d^2\phi}{dy^2} \left(\frac{d\phi}{dx} \right)^2 = 0.$$

Hence show that $(a, 0)$ is a point of inflexion on—

$$x^3 = axy + a^3.$$

Find the asymptotes of—

$$x^3 + y^3 = 3axy.$$

Shew that a curve of an odd degree cannot be finite.

$$p = r \frac{dr}{d\phi}$$

Shew that in an ellipse referred to its centre—

$$\frac{a^2b^2}{p^2} = a^2 + b^2 - r^2.$$

Hence prove that the radius of curvature at a point P of an ellipse given by—

$$\frac{CD^2}{ab}$$

where CD is the conjugate diameter.

8. Integrate one of the following expressions—

$$\frac{dx}{(x+p)\sqrt{a+2bx+cx^2}} \quad \frac{dx}{(a+cx^2)^{\frac{3}{2}}} \quad \frac{d\theta}{\sin\theta}$$

9. Shew that—

$$\frac{f(x)}{\phi(x)} = \frac{f(a_1)}{\phi'(a_1)} \frac{1}{x-a_1} + \frac{f(a_2)}{\phi'(a_2)} \frac{1}{x-a_2} + \dots \frac{f(a_n)}{\phi'(a_n)} \frac{1}{x-a_n}$$ where $\alpha_1, \alpha_2, \dots, \alpha_n$ are the roots, supposed to be all real and unequal, of the algebraical equation $\phi(x) = 0$, and $f(x)$ is an algebraical function of lower degree than $\phi(x)$. Hence integrate $\frac{f(x) dx}{\phi(x)}$.

11. Describe briefly the transit circle.
12. Mention the principal methods of finding latitude.

Clive, the founder of the British empire in India, had gone out to Madras in the civil service of the East India Company in 1744, and was present at the surrender of that town to Labourdonnais, two years after. Following the bent of his genius, he exchanged the pen for the sword, and obtained an ensign's commission. He distinguished himself in the operations before Devicotta, where he attracted the admiration of Major Lawrence. He was also at the abortive and disastrous siege of Pondicherry under admiral Boscawen. Mr. Saunders adopted his advice, and confided the Arcot expedition to his charge, though he was only twenty-six years of age at the time. The only force that could be spared from Madras consisted of 200 Europeans, and 300 sepoy, and eight field piece.

The signal defeat of Sindia by Colonel Camac convinced him that he had everything to lose by a contest with the English in the heart of his dominions, which might end in driving him across the Nerbudda without land or friends, and extinguishing his influence in the Mahratta commonwealth. He accordingly made overtures to Colonel Muir, which Hastings was but too happy to entertain, and they terminated in a treaty which was concluded on the 13th of October. The territory west of the Jumna, from which he had been expelled by Major Popham, was restored to him, with the exception of the fort of Gwalior, which was reserved for the Rana Gohud, and he engaged to negotiate a treaty between the other belligerents and the British Government, but, at all events, to stand neutral. The treaty gave great umbrage to Nana Furnuvese, partly because it acknowledged Sindia as an independent power, but chiefly because this assumption of the office of plenipotentiary served to increase his power and his importance.

MATHEMATICS.

FIRST PAPER.

H. COX ESQ., Examiner

Statics and Dynamics.

Full marks may be obtained by answering the first nine questions correctly, but the student is recommended to answer as many of the additional questions as he can.

1. Assuming the Parallelogram of Forces prove that if three forces acting on a particle keep it in equilibrium, each is proportional to the sine of the angle between the other two.

Forces drawn from the centre O of the inscribed circle of the triangle ABC in the directions OA, OB, OC keep a particle at O in equilibrium : prove the the forces are proportional to—

$$\cos \frac{A}{2}, \cos \frac{B}{2}, \cos \frac{C}{2}.$$

2. Prove that if two forces meet in a point, the sum of their moments about any point in their plane is equal to the moment of the resultant about the same point.

Shew that if a triangle be given, any force F in the plane of the triangle can be replaced by three forces acting along its sides. If ABC be the triangle, p, q, r , the perpendiculars from A, B, C , on the line of action of F , a, b, c , the sides, and S the area of ABC , prove that F will be equivalent to the forces—

$$\frac{Fp}{2S}a, \frac{Fq}{2S}b, \frac{Fr}{2S}c, \text{ acting along } BC, CA, AB.$$

3. Explain what is meant by a couple.

Prove that the effect of a couple on a rigid body is not altered if its arm is moved parallel to itself anywhere in the plane of the couple.

Forces act along the sides of a triangle ABC and are represented in magnitude and direction by those sides : prove that they are equivalent to a couple whose moment is twice the area of the triangle.

4. Find the position of equilibrium of a balance when the weights placed in the scale-pans are not equal.

Explain what are the requisites of a good balance, and shew how they may be obtained.

5. Find the centre of gravity of a uniform circular arc.

6. Define Limiting Friction, Coefficient of Friction, Angle of Friction.

Find the magnitude and direction of the least force which will draw a body along a rough horizontal plane.

7. Define virtual work, and prove that when two forces act at a point, the sum of the virtual works done by each of the forces is equal to the virtual work done by the resultant, for all displacements of the point.

The sides of a rhombus $ABCD$ are hinged together at the angles, and the opposite angular points are connected by stretched inextensible strings. If P Q be the tensions of the string AC , BD , respectively, prove that when the figure is in equilibrium—

$$\cos DAB = \frac{P^2 - Q^2}{P^2 + Q^2}$$

8. Prove that the path of a projectile is a parabola.

9. Find the acceleration of a particle moving in a circle with uniform velocity.

Additional questions.

$$\frac{2\pi}{\sqrt{\mu}}$$

11. Find the time of oscillation of a Simple Pendulum.

12. Prove that a thin uniform spherical shell will exert the same force on an external particle as a particle of mass equal to the shell placed at its centre.

What will be the thickness of the iron cylinder, if the specific gravities of cork, iron, and turpentine be '24, 7'71, and '87 respectively in terms of water ?

9. Describe the common barometer.

If a barometer with an imperfect vacuum stand at heights of 29 and $29\frac{1}{4}$ inches when the true heights are 30 and $30\frac{3}{4}$ inches respectively, what will be the true height when it stands at $29\frac{1}{2}$ inches ?

FIRST PAPER.

C. A. ANDREWS Esq., M. A., Examiner.

1. Point out briefly the advantages and disadvantages of Paradise Lost as a subject for Epic treatment. In selecting the Fall of Man, show how Milton was restricted in his choice of this subject by the circumstances of the age in which he lived, and by his peculiar situation and convictions.

2. Explain why Milton avoided making the Angel Raphael express any decided opinion regarding the two systems of astronomy current during the 17th century. Describe, and briefly comment upon the theory propounded by that Angel, of 'matter working up to spirit.' What political opinions does Milton express in his reference to the "parsimonious emmet."

3. Annotate the following passages:—

(a) In discourse more sweet,
(For eloquence the soul, song charms the sense,) Others apart sat on a hill retired, In thoughts more elevate, and reasoned high Of providence, foreknowledge, will, and fate, — Fixed fate, free will, foreknowledge absolute, — And found no end,—in wandering mazes lost. Of good and evil much they argued then, Of happiness and final misery, Passion and apathy, and glory and shame ; Vain wisdom all, and false philosophy.

(b) That stone, or like to that, which here below Philosophers in vain so long have sought ; In vain, though by their powerful art they bind Volatile Hermes, and call up unbound In various shapes old Proteus from the sea, Drained through a limbec to his native form.

Half-way up-hill this vast sublunar vault.

(d) The space of seven continued nights he rode
With darkness ; thrice the equinoctial line
He circled ; four times crossed the car of night
From pole to pole, traversing each colure.

(e) The sound
Of instruments, that made melodious chime
Was heard, of harp and organ ; and who moved
Their stops and chords, was seen ; his volant touch,
Instinct through all proportions, low and high,
Fled and pursued transverse the resonant fugue.

(f) At last he rose, and twitted his mantle blue ;
Tomorrow to fresh woods and pastures new.

4. (a) Tennyson has described the Idylls of the King as a tale
"shadowing Sense at war with Soul." To what extent has he carried out this underlying purpose. Explain clearly why Tennyson is entitled to be regarded as the representative poet of the Victorian age.

(b) Annotate and explain :—

(i) So let the change which comes be free
To ingroove itself with that which flies,
And work, a joint of state that plies
Its office, moved with sympathy :—
A saying, hard to shape in act ;
For all the past of Time reveals
A bridal dawn of thunder-peals,
Wherever Thought hath wedded Fact.

(ii) When she would think, where'er she turned her sight,
The airy hand confusion wrought,
Wrote " Mene, mene," and divided quite
The kingdom of her thought.

(iii) A land of just and old renown
Where Freedom broadens slowly down
From precedent to precedent.

(iv) The spacious times of great Elizabeth.

(v) Yet let us hence, and find or feel away
 Thro' the blind haze, which ever since I saw
 One lying in the dust at Almesbury,
 Hath folden in the passes of the world.

 The protreiture that was upon the wal
 Withinne the temple of mighty Mars the reede?
 Ther saugh I first the derke ymaginynge
 Of felonye, and at the compassyng ;
 The cruel ire, as reed as eny gleede ;
 The pikepurs, and eek the pale drede ;
 The smylere with the knyf under the cloke ;
 The schepne brennyng with the blake smoke ;
 The tresoun of the murtheryng in the bed ;
 The open werre, with woundes al bi-bled :
 Contek with bloody knyf, and scharp manace.
 Al ful of chirkyng was that sory place.
 The sleere of himself yet saugh I there.
 His herte-blood hath bathed al his here ;
 The nayl y-dryven in the schode a-nyght ;
 The colde death, with mouth gapyng upright.
 Amyddes of the temple sat meschaunce,
 With discomfort and sory contenaunce.

(b) In daunger hadde he at his owne gise.

How have ye left your ancient love
That bards of old enjoyed in you !
The languid strings do scarcely move,
The sound is forced, the notes are few !

Who wrote the above verse? Explain it. State the causes which led to the development of didactic poetry during the century that followed the Restoration. Why was a more correct poetic style considered desirable; and what were the reasons of the prosaic view of poetry which prevailed at that period?

8. "When Johnson called Gray 'a barren rascal,' he implied, in coarse language, a truth of some importance, and passed a just criticism on Gray." Examine the above statement, and account for Gray's sterility as a poet. Compare Gray and Collins as lyric poets.

9. Explain the following passages, and state the context in which they occur:—

(a) But me, scarce hoping to attain that rest,
Always from port withheld, always distressed—
Me howling winds drive devious, tempest-tossed,
Sails ript, seams opening wide, and compass lost,
And day by day some current's thwarting force
Sets me more distant from a prosperous course.

(b) Still raise for good the supplicating voice,
But leave to heaven the measure and the choice ;
Safe in his power, whose eyes discern afar
The secret ambush of a specious prayer.

(c) The verse adorn again
Fierce War and faithful Love,
And Truth severe—by fairy Fiction dressed.

(d) Worth makes the man and want of it the fellow;
The rest is all but leather and prunella.

(e) Fear his hand, its skill to try,
Amid the chords bewildered laid,
And back recoiled, he knew not why,
Even at the sound himself had made.

SECOND PAPER.

C. A. ANDREWS ESQ., M. A., Examiner.

1. (a) Characterise the mythical age to which King Lear belongs. Where did Shakespeare find the story and characters of this play? How may the excess of tragic horror and wickedness be defended on moral and artistic grounds?

(b) What symptoms of incipient mental disease are observable in the words and actions of Lear previous to the storm-scene? Trace the further development of his insanity; and discuss the treatment to which he was subjected with reference to the treatment of the insane in Shakespeare's time, and since.

(c) Express clearly the meaning of the following passage:—

Edgar. To be worst

The lowest and most dejected thing of fortune,
Stands still in esperance, lives not in fear.
The lamentable change is from the best;
The worst returns to laughter. Welcome then,
Thou unsubstantial air that I embrace!
The wretch that thou hast blown unto the worst
Owes nothing to thy blasts,

(d) Explain the point of the Fool's witticisms in the following passages, and their application to Lear's folly:—

(i.) Fool. Thou hadst little wit in thy bald crown when thou gavest thy golden one away. If I speak like myself in this, let him be whipped that first finds it so.

Fools had ne'er less grace in a year ;
 For wise men are grown foppish,
 And know not how their wits to wear,
 Their manners are so apish.

Lear. When were you want to be so full of songs, Sirrah ?

Fool. I have used it, uncle, e'er since thou madest thy daughters thy mothers ;

Then they for sudden joy did weep,
 And I for sorrow sung,
 That such a king should play bo-peep,
 And go the fools among.

(ii.) Lear. O me, my heart, my rising heart ! But down :

Fool. Cry to it, uncle, as the cockney did to the eels when she put em i' th' paste alive ; she knapped, 'em o' th coxcombs with a stick, and cried 'Down, wantons, down !' 'T was her brother that, in pure kindness to his horse, but-tered his hay.

(iii.) Fool. The man that makes his toe

What he his heart should make
 Shall of a corn cry woe,
 And turn his sleep to wake.

2. (a) It is said that Shakespeare has, with great skill, brought the private and domestic affairs of his characters into direct connection with the social and public interests of the countries, in which they lived. Examine the truth of this remark in the play of Romeo and Juliet ; and explain the significance of the Prince of Verona's interference between the two hostile families.

(b) Describe the conflict of rights and duties, moral, social and domestic, in which Romeo and Juliet found themselves placed. Friar Lawrence is said to represent the chorus in the tragedy. Give the substance of his didactic speeches, and extract from them the leading idea, and the chief moral teaching of the play.

(c) Annotate the following passages :—

(i.) Romeo. Here, here, will I remain
 With worms that are thy chamber-maids ; O here
 Will I set up my everlasting rest,

And shake the yoke of inauspicious stars
 From this world-wearied flesh.—Eyes look your last !
 Arms, take your last embrace ! and, lips, O you
 The doors of breath, seal with a righteous kiss
 A dateless bargain to embracing death !
 Come, better conduct, come unsavoury guide !
 Thou desperate pilot, now at once run on
 The dashing rocks thy sea-sick weary bark !

Explain the metaphors in the above passage.

(ii.) Alas, that love, whose view is muffled still,
 Should without eyes, see pathways to his will.

What other reading of this passage is there in the First Quarto, and how would it affect the meaning ?

(b) Summarise the course of reasoning pursued by the three suitors which induced them to choose the gold, the silver, and the leaden caskets respectively.

4. (a) On what occasions in the play of Julius Cæsar is the contrast between the characters of Brutus and Cassius most conspicuously displayed ? Show from the play that the assassination of Cæsar was both a moral and a political error on the part of Brutus.

(b) Contrast the speech of Brutus with the funeral oration of Antony over the dead body of Cæsar ; and show that they are striking examples of Shakespeare's powers of characterization.

(c) Express in simple prose, and annotate :—

(i.) O hateful error, melancholy's child,
 Why dost thou show to the apt thoughts of men
 The things that are not ? O error, soon conceived,
 Thou never comest unto a happy birth,
 But kill'st the mother that engendered thee.

How may the above speech of Messala over the dead Cassius be applied to the conduct of Brutus towards Cæsar ?

(ii.) Between the acting of a dreadful thing
 And the first motion, all the interim is
 Like a phantasma, or a hideous dream ;
 The Genius and the mortal instruments
 Are then in council ; and the state of man,
 Like to a little kingdom, suffers then
 The nature of an insurrection.

(iii.) A barren-spirited fellow ; one that feeds
 On objects, orts and imitations,
 Which, out of use and staled by other men,
 Begin his fashion : do not talk of him
 But as a property,

What is the Folio reading of the second line, and how would it affect the meaning ?

5. (a) Show from the play of Antony and Cleopatra that it was political rather than moral profligacy which was the cause of Antony's ruin. How is the moral and political teaching of the play rendered more pointed by the character and conduct of Enobarbus ?

(b) Explain and annotate the following passages :—

(i.) 2. Servant. Lepidus is high-coloured.

1. Servant. They have made him drink alms-drink.

2. Servant. As they pinch one another by the disposition, he cries out 'No more'; reconciles them to his entreaty, and himself to the drink.

1. Servant. But it raises the greater war between him and his discretion.

2. Servant. Why, this it is to have a name in great men's fellowship ; I had as lief have a reed that will do me no service as a partisan I could not heave.

1. Servant. To be called into a huge sphere, and not to be seen to move in it, are the holes where eyes should be, which pitifully disaster the cheeks.

(ii.) Attendant. A messenger from Caesar.

Cleopatra. What, no more ceremony?—See, my women!
Against the blown rose may they stop their nose
That kneel'd unto the buds.

(iii.) Enobarbus.

To be furious

Is to be frightened out of fear, and in that mood
The dove will peck the estridge; and I see still,
A diminution of our captain's brain
Restores his heart; when valour preys on reason,
It eats the sword it fights with.

6. (a) Discuss briefly the objection raised by Dr. Johnson that Samson Agonistes is imperfectly developed, in so far as nothing passes between the first and the last act which either hastens or delays the death of Samson.

(b) What historical and personal events are alluded to by Milton in this drama?

(c) Annotate:—

(i.) Fame, if not double-faced, is double-mouthed,
And with contrary blast proclaims most deeds;
On both his wings, one black, the other white,
Bears greatest names in his wild airy flight.

(ii.) So Virtue, given for lost,
Depressed and overthrown, as seemed
Like that self-begotten bird,
In the Arabian woods embost,
That no second knows, nor third,
And lay erewhile a holocaust,
From out her ashy womb now teemed,
Revives, re flourishes, then vigorous most
When most unactive deemed;
And, though her body die, her fame survives,
A secular bird, ages of lives.

7. Translate into idiomatic Persian :—

It has been made a question whether the poems of Hafiz must be taken in a literal or a figurative sense ; but the question does not admit of a general and direct answer, for even the most enthusiastic of his commentators allow that some of them are to be taken literally, and his editors ought to have distinguished his four odes on Love and Beauty, instead of mixing the profane with the divine by a childish arrangement according to the alphabetical order of the rhymes.

On the side of the walls are many Persian verses, written by those who at different times visited the place. The building is now going to ruin, and unless repaired must soon fall entirely to decay. Adjoining to this building are the graves of many religious men who have been buried here at their own request.

(a) Hurmuzd IV. was declared successor to his father the great Chosroes, surnamed Nausherwan the Just, and ascended the throne of Persia 579 A. D. His subjects revolted against him at the instigation of Bahram Chobin or Varanes, his general, whom he had offended by sending him a female dress because he had been defeated by the Romans: They confined Hurmuzd* and put out his eyes to disqualify him from ascending the throne, and soon after put him to death 590 A. D. His son Khusro Purnez having collected a force to oppose Bahram, who with the intention of taking the government into his own hands was advancing towards Madain, was defeated; and with great difficulty effected his escape to the territories of the Romans, from whose Emperor, Mourice, he met with the most friendly and hospitable reception. Bahram Chobin took possession of the vacant government but his rule was short, for within eight months from the period of his taking possession of Madain, he was defeated by an army of Romans and Persians commanded by Khusro, and fled to Tartary.

(b) It is related in histories that a race of Jinn in ancient times, before the creation of Adam, inhabited the earth, and covered it, the land and the sea, and the plains and the mountains; and the favours of God were multiplied upon them, and they had government, and prophecy, and religion and law ; but they transgressed and offended, and opposed their prophets, and made wickedness to abound in the earth ; whereupon God, whose name be exalted, sent against them an army of angels, who took possession of the earth, and drove away the Jinn to the regions of the islands, and made many of them prisoners ; and of those who were made prisoners was Azazil (afterwards called Iblis, from his despair), and a slaughter was made among them. At the time Azazil was young ; he grew up among the angels (and probably for that reason was called one of them), and became learned in their knowledge, and assumed the government of them ; and his days were prolonged until he became their chief ; and thus it continued for a long time, until the affair between him and Adam happened, as God, whose name be exalted, hath said, 'When we said unto the Angels, Worship ye Adam, and all worshipped except Iblis,' who was one of the Jinn.

But may it not be said, there is no such thing as Veda, how can there be a part of it known as the Rigveda ? For what is this you call Veda ? You can not define it. And without definition and proof nothing is established. Do not logicians assert that things are established by definition and proof of existence ?

If you attempt to define what you mean by Veda, by saying that of the three kinds of evidence, perception, inference, and revealed scripture, it is the last, that will not do. The definition is too wide, including, as it would do, the Smritis of Manu and of others.

PHILOSOPHY.

FIRST PAPER.

A. E. GOUGH ESQ., M. A. Examiner.

1. Consider the dispositions with which a man should enter upon the pursuit of truth by way of the reason ; and the position in which he should place himself with regard to the collective wisdom of his race.

2. Explain the divine mission of Socrates ; his attitude towards popular morals and politics ; his attitude towards physical inquiry ; his strictures on Anaxagoras ; his unpopularity. Was he, or was he not, an individualistic thinker ? How far was the indictment against him true, and how far false ?

3. Explain the notions of law, pollution, and expiation, in Greek life and religion. Illustrate from the Euthyphro, the Crito, and the Gorgias.

Reproduce intimations of the pre-existence and post-existence of the personality and of a process of retribution, from the Phædo, Phædrus, Gorgias, and Republic.

4. Give Plato's analysis of the moral nature and the body politic. What is according to Plato the purpose of moral and political life ? Is the "idea of the good" a theistic or not a theistic conception ?

5. Reproduce the autobiographical references of the Discourse on Method. State the principles on which Descartes lived and acted pending his reconstruction of the edifice of knowledge ? How far was he indebted to catholic theology in his work of reconstruction ?

6. Give Descartes' definition of substance, mental substance, material substance. How was the system of Spinoza developed from these definitions ?

Account for Malebranche's theory of intercourse between mind and matter ; and contrast with this the Leibnitzian doctrine of the pre-established harmony.

7. "Man is not an organism, but an intelligence served by organs." Develop after Plato, Descartes, and Butler, the notion of the soul, or self, or personality, and its immaterial and permanent nature. Show that self is not only passive, but also active in the formation of experience and character.

THIRD PAPER.

H. COX ESQ., M.A., Examiner.

Not more than ten questions are to be attempted.

1. Prove that the equation to the pair of tangents which can be drawn to conic—

$$ax^2+2hxy+by^2+2gx+2fy+c=0.$$

from the point (x, y) is

$$(ax^2+2hxy+by^2+2gx+2fy+c)(ax^2+2hxy+by^2+2gx+2fy+c)$$

(b.) Hence prove that the locus of the points of intersection of tangents at right angles is

$$(ab-h^2)(x^2+y^2) - 2(hf+bg)x - 2(gh-af)y + (a+b)c - f^2 - g^2 = 0.$$

Interpret this equation.

2. Shew that in general one and only one conic can be drawn to pass through five given points. Shew that two parabolas and only only rectangular hyperbola can in general be drawn through four given points. Explain why there are exceptions in the latter case, and hence prove that every rectangular hyperbola which passes through the angular points of a triangle will also pass through its orthocentre.

3. Shew that the condition that the straight line $lx + my + n = 0$ should touch the conic —

$$ax^2 + 2hxy + by^2 + 2gx + 2fy + c = 0$$

may be written —

$$A^2 + Bm^2 + Cn^2 + 2Fmn + 2Gnl + 2Hlm = 0$$

where A, B, C, F, G, H are the minors of the determinant

$$\begin{vmatrix} a, & h, & g \\ h, & b, & f \\ g, & f, & c \end{vmatrix}$$

(c.) Hence find the locus of the centre of a conic which touches four given straight lines.

4. Prove Pascal's theorem.

5. Define anharmonic ratio. Prove that the anharmonic ratio of a pencil of rays drawn from a variable point on a conic to four fixed points is constant.

If BC, CA, AB the sides of a triangle ABC meet a curve of the n^{th} degree in $(a_1 a_2 \dots a_n)(b_1 b_2 \dots b_n)(c_1 c_2 \dots c_n)$ respectively then—

$$\frac{Ba_1 \cdot Ba_2 \dots Ba_n}{a_1 C, a_2 C, \dots, a_n C} \cdot \frac{Cb_1 \cdot Cb_2 \dots Cb_n}{b_1 A, b_2 A, \dots, b_n A} \cdot \frac{Ac_1 \cdot Ac_2 \dots Ac_n}{c_1 B, c_2 B, \dots, c_n B} = (-1)^n$$

(b.) Hence show that the three points of inflexion of a cubic lie on one straight line.

8. Distinguish between descriptive and matrical theorems. Give examples of each class. How many distinct kinds of geometry are there in which a measure of distance is possible?

9. Considering a plane as the locus of points which satisfy the equation —

$$Ax + By + Cz + D = 0$$

prove that the co-ordinates of any point on the plane passing through three points $(x_1 y_1 z_1)(x_2 y_2 z_2)(x_3 y_3 z_3)$ may be written in the form—

$$ax_1 + \beta x_2 + \gamma x_3, \quad ay_1 + \beta y_2 + \gamma y_3, \quad az_1 + \beta z_2 + \gamma z_3,$$ where $a + \beta + \gamma = 1$.

What is the geometrical meaning of a, β, γ ?

10. Prove the following expression for the volume of a tetrahedron bounded by four given points.

$$6v = \begin{vmatrix} x_1 & y_1 & z_1 & 1 \\ x_2 & y_2 & z_2 & 1 \\ x_3 & y_3 & z_3 & 1 \\ x_4 & y_4 & z_4 & 1 \end{vmatrix}$$

11. Define Plücker's co-ordinates of a straight line. What is the homogeneous relation between these co-ordinates?

1. If $(l, m, n, \lambda, \mu, \nu)$ $(l', m', n', \lambda', \mu', \nu')$ be the co-ordinates of two straight lines, what is the meaning of—

$$l\lambda' + m\mu' + n\nu' + \lambda l' + \mu m' + \nu n'?$$

12. Show how to find the circular sections of the ellipsoid—

$$\frac{x^2}{a^2} + \frac{y^2}{b^2} + \frac{z^2}{c^2} = 1$$

13. Prove that three quadrics confocal with a given quadric can be drawn through any given point and that these three quadrics cut one another at right angles.

$$\frac{1 + \rho^2}{r} = \frac{\rho q}{s} = \frac{1 + q^2}{t}.$$

Assuming the laws of multiplication find the expressions for the area of a triangle and the volume of a tetrahedron in areal and tetrahedral co-ordinates respectively.

MATHEMATICS.

FOURTH PAPER.

H. COX ESQ., M. A. Examiner.

Not more than ten questions are to be attempted.

1. Prove Leibnitz' Theorem that if forces represented in magnitude and direction by lOA , mOB , nOC , rOD , &c. act at a point their resultant will be represented in magnitude and direction by $(l+m+n+r+&c.) OG$ where G is the centre of gravity of weights $l, m, n, &c.$, placed at the points $A, B, C, D, &c.$

2. Hence prove that if $(\alpha, \beta, \gamma, \delta)$ $(\alpha', \beta', \gamma', \delta')$ be the tetrahedral co-ordinates of two points P and Q, a force represented in direction and magnitude by PQ will be equivalent to forces

$(\beta\gamma' - \gamma\beta')BC$, $(\gamma\alpha - \alpha\gamma)CA$, $(\alpha\beta' - \beta\alpha')AB$, $(\delta\alpha' - \delta'\alpha)DA$, $(\delta\beta' - \beta\delta')DB$, $(\delta\gamma' - \gamma\delta')DC$ where ABCD is the fundamental tetrahedron.

Shew from this that any system of forces can be replaced by forces λBC , μCA , νAB , λDA , μDB , νDC , and that the condition that the system should reduce to a single force is—

$$\lambda + \mu + \nu = 0.$$

What is the relation of this reduction of a system of forces to the ordinary reduction to three forces and three couples?

3. A string is stretched over a rough curve, prove that the relation between the tension at its ends is—

$$T = TT_0 e^{\mu\theta}$$

where θ is the angle between the two tangents.

4. A rigid body receives a small motion of translation and rotation whose components are $a, b, c, \theta_1, \theta_2, \theta_3$. Shew that the displacement of any point x, y, z are given by

$$\begin{aligned} \delta x &= a - y\theta_3 + z\theta_2 \\ \delta y &= b - z\theta_1 + x\theta_3 \\ \delta z &= c - x\theta_2 + y\theta_1 \end{aligned}$$

Hence assuming the equation of virtual work deduce the conditions of equilibrium of a rigid body under the action of any forces.

5. Prove that the equation of the cylindroid, that is to say of the locus of the axes of all the screws that can be obtained by combining together two screws at right angles whose pitches are p and q is

$$z(x^2 + y^2) - (q - p)xy = 0.$$

6. Prove by Grassmann's or any other method, Möbius' theorem that when a system of forces is reduced to a pair of forces represented in magnitude and line of action by two straight lines the volume of the tetrahedron formed by these lines is constant however the reduction is made.

Shew that the line of action of one of these forces can in general be chosen arbitrarily. Are there any exceptions?

7. Find the attraction of a uniform rod on any point.

8. Show that if $V = \int \int \int \frac{p \, dx \, dy \, dz}{r}$ where the integral is taken throughout the whole of the attracting, the components of force at any point are $\frac{dV}{dx}, \frac{dV}{dy}, \frac{dV}{dz}$. Hence shew that V is the work done in drawing a particle of unit mass from an infinite distance to its actual position.

9. Prove Green's Theorem—

10. Find the accelerations of a moving particle along and perpendicular to the radius vector.

11. A particle moves in an ellipse under the action of a force tending to any fixed point. Prove that the force is proportional to the distance from the point directly and the cube of the distance from the polar inversely. Examine the special cases when the point is the focus or the centre of the ellipse.

12. A simple pendulum swings backwards and forwards through an arc α on either side of the vertical. Find the time of a complete oscillation.

(α is not supposed to be a small quantity).

(c) A sues on a bond dated 5th June, 1892, which was registered on the same date. A who had the bond with him has lost it. Can he sue for the money due on the said bond on a copy of the said bond obtained from the office of the Registrar where the bond was registered?

Under what circumstances can A do so?

VI.—Define plaint. How is to be drawn? How is to be signed and verified? A signs a plaint but verifies it to this effect—"I declare that the contents of this plaint are true to my knowledge." Is this a good verification according to law? What documents are to be put in Court with plaint?

VII.—Define written statement. How many times and when can a defendant put in written statements in Court? Can a plaintiff also tender a written statement, and under what circumstances?

VIII.—What should a memorandum of appeal under the Code of Civil Procedure contain? Can a plea which has not been entered in the memorandum of appeal be allowed to be urged afterwards by the appellant, and on what principle?

IX.—When an accused person pleads guilty to a charge can he appeal against the sentence passed against him? If he can, then to what extent? A, an accused person, has been fined Rs. 50. Can he appeal against this order? A has been sentenced by a Criminal Court to be imprisoned for fifteen days and he has also been ordered by the said Court to pay a fine of Rs. 25. Can he appeal against the order?

Are the orders of a Magistrate in summary trials open to appeal? If they are, then under what circumstances? Can an appeal in any case lie on a question of law only, and not on a question of fact under the Code of Criminal Procedure?

X.—Pending an appeal by a convicted person, can the sentence passed against him by the lower Court be suspended by the appellate Court?
